

NEW HAMPSHIRE

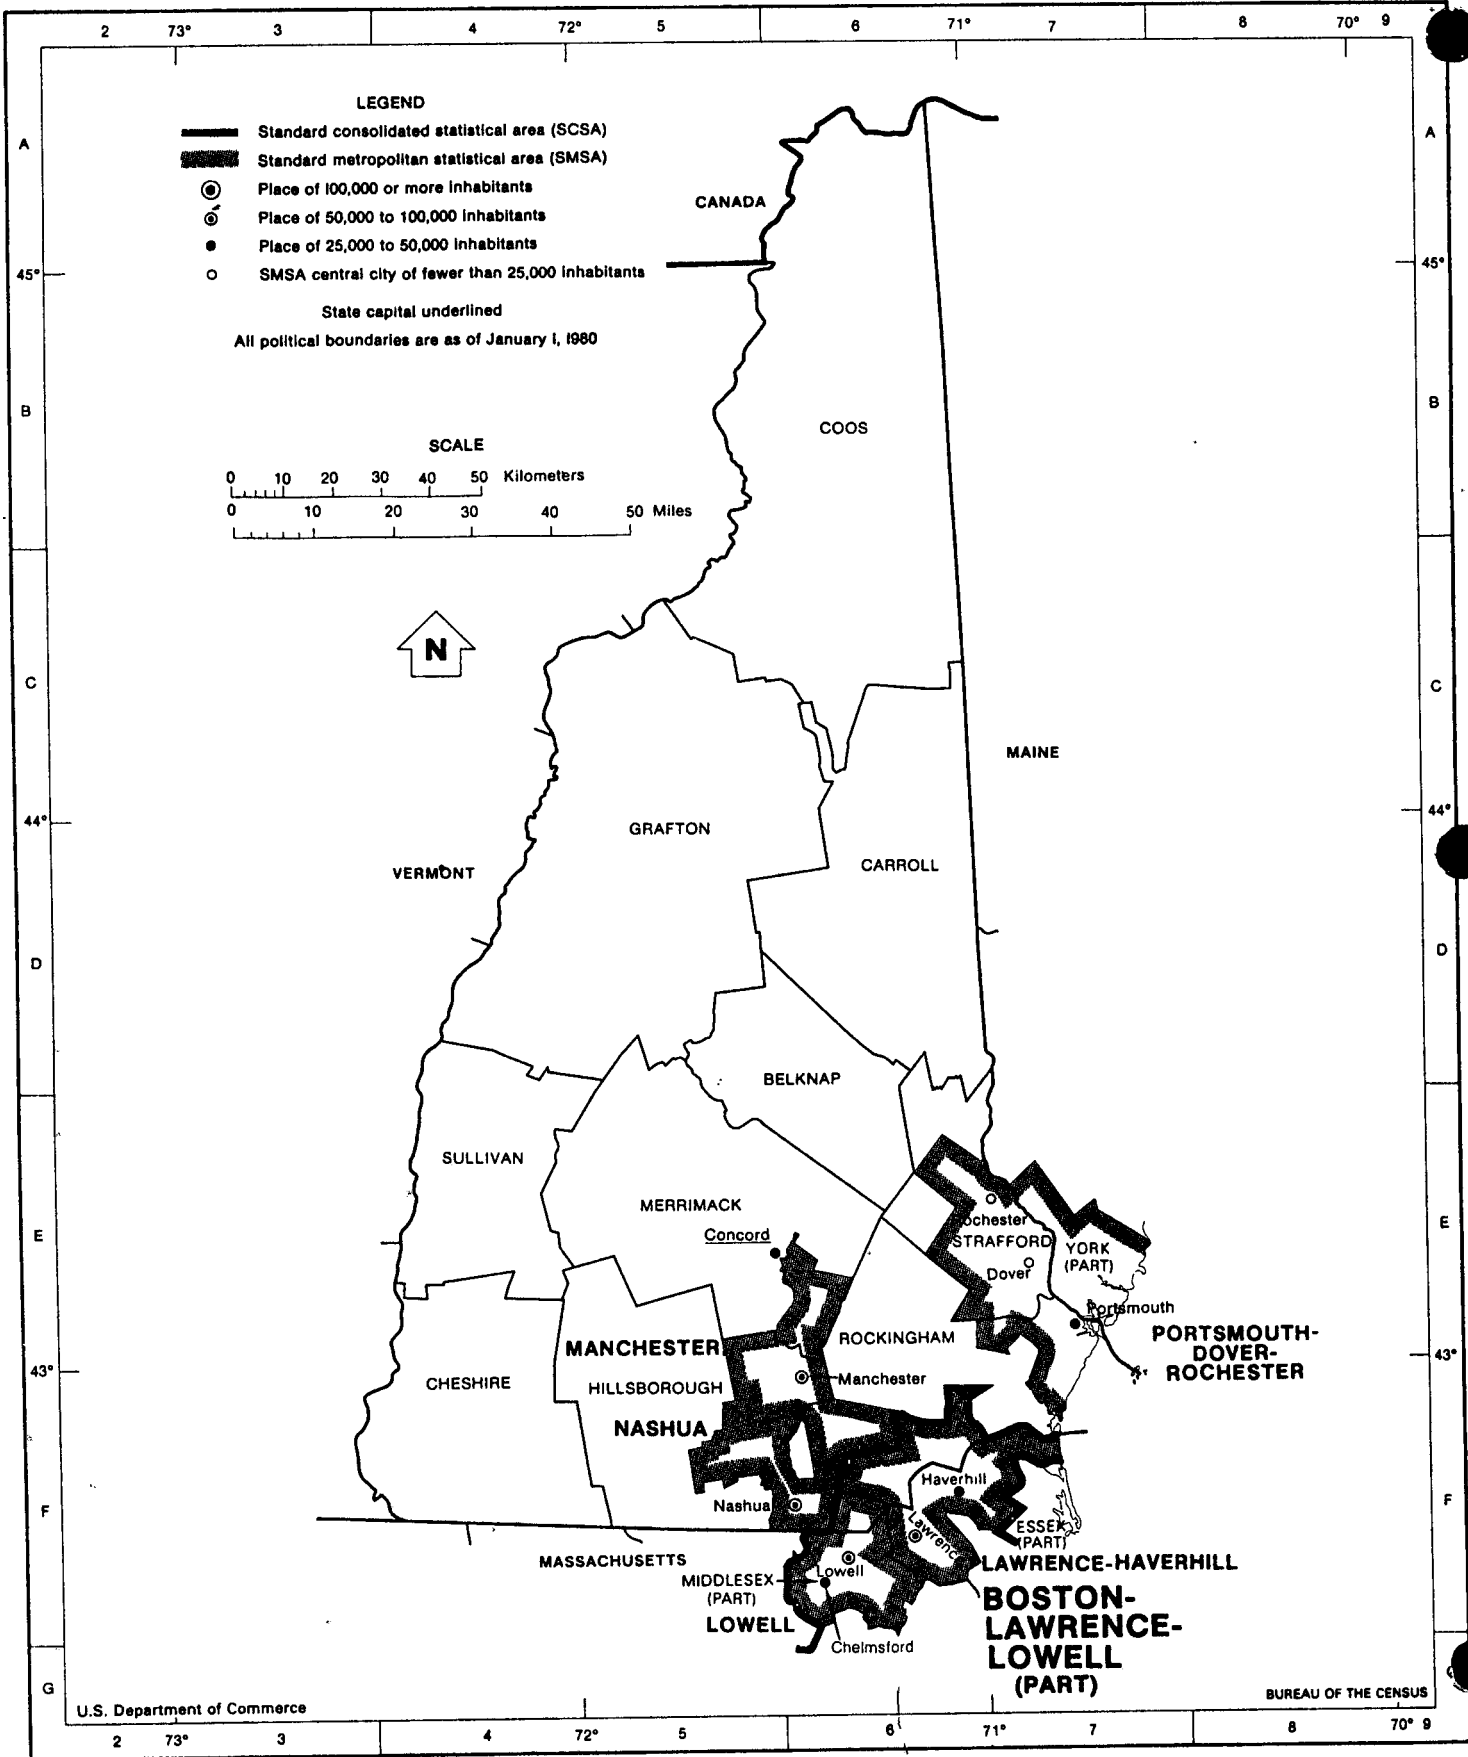

MINOR CIVIL DIVISIONS

The primary divisions of the counties of New Hampshire are the towns. However, in Carroll County there is one location, and in Coos County there are grants, purchases, locations, townships, in addition to the towns. The cities are primary divisions of the counties. There are no secondary divisions in New Hampshire. Many New Hampshire town governments serve heavily populated areas and perform functions ordinarily associated elsewhere with municipal governments. Cities exist outside the area of any town.

MUNICIPALITIES

Municipal governments in New Hampshire are the cities. They are established by special acts of the legislature and, in addition to usual municipal functions, they have responsibility for services handled in other parts of the State by town governments.
